WALTER PIDGEON HEADS "THE STAR AND THE STORY,"

NEW SUNDAY NIGHT DRAMATIC SHOW STARTING FEB. 6:

GUESTS TO APPEAR IN ADAPTATIONS OF THEIR HITS

"The Star and the Story," a new Sunday evening dramatic program starring Walter Pidgeon with distinguished guest players, makes its debut over CBS February 6. (WABC-CBS, 8:00 to 8:30 PM, EWT. From Hollywood).

Pidgeon, one of moviedom's top box-office attractions, serves also as master-of-ceremonies. Dramas presented are adaptations of films or stage plays in which his guests won stardom or great acclaim.

Pidgeon played lead roles in "How Green Was My Valley," "Mrs. Miniver" and the current "Madame Curie." Born in St. John, New Brunswick, he was educated at the University of New Brunswick and served in the Canadian Army in World War I.

After the war, Pidgeon worked in a Boston bank, then joined E. E. Clive's stock company. Fred Astaire recommended him to Broadway producers Charles Dillingham and Arthur Hammerstein. After successes here and in London, Pidgeon was called to Hollywood to play with Dolores Costello in "The Mannequin."

"The Star and the Story" is sponsored by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.
